Old Business

The Installation Dinner is on June 24th at Marquette Cottage. Social Hour begins at 6 p.m.

Rotary received thank you notes from HHS Project Prom for our donation and Cass Career Center for the student scholarships.

The Needs Assessment Committee continues its assessment for recommendation to the board.

The Flag Committee reports collection of fees at 75% with plan for second billing to delinquents in mid-June.

New Business

Jill will take a look at those that qualify for Perfect Attendance.

Gabe reported that we should come out ahead this year in our budget. We are approximately $10,000 under in income and expenses.

Nancy reported on the work of the Fundraising Committee. They have come up with a few ideas for additional fundraisers. One would be a member assessment picnic in August and one would be a public Steak & Shrimp Dinner in October. Both events are still in the preliminary stages.

Phil thanked the board members for their support this year.

The Board selected the Rotarian of the Year which will be announced at the Installation Dinner.

The meeting adjourned at 7:29 a.m.
