CLUB COMMITTEES

The Club Administration Committee works with all the other committees to help with long term goals as well as the day to day operation of the club. They are also responsible for determining the budget that will be needed to accomplish long term goals. Along with working to retain members, this committee also contributes to developing leaders for the club, district and Rotary International. ~~Jill Filer

The Club Membership Committee is responsible for achieving club membership goals. They also play a critical role in retaining new members through education and training. They are also involved with classifications and club assessments. This committee also contributes to developing leaders for the club, district and Rotary International. ~~Carol Looney

The Club Service Project Committee is the keeper of the motto, "Service Above Self." Each Rotarian is expected to improve their local community as well as the global community. This committee identifies needs and determines what is required to have a positive impact on those needs. They present an overview of a project to the club so that all members can be included in achieving the desired results. This committee also contributes to developing leaders for the club, district and Rotary International. ~~Judy Franklin

The Club Public Relations Committee provides the club a face for the outside world. This committee is responsible for making sure that the club projects get noticed in the community and that major Rotary International milestones get some local attention. Where appropriate, it will utilize all forms of media to get the message across. This committee also contributes to developing leaders for the club, district and Rotary International. ~~Helen Budinger

The Rotary Foundation Committee helps the club set and achieve foundation goals and educates the club about the Foundation itself. The committee also communicates the goals of the district as well as the Foundation to the club members. This committee also contributes to developing leaders for the club, district and Rotary International. ~~Bill Mills

The not so subtle message here is that Rotary does wonderful things around the globe but it's also part of our club and is here to help us as well.
