Why do we sell papers?

CLUB 13, the Rotary club of Kansas City has a youth camp that is made available to disabled and disadvantage youngsters at no charge. The Kansas City Star provides newspapers and Royals tickets in order that the rest of us can raise money to keep this amazing outlet for youngsters available to them at no cost.

The original Club 13 (Kansas City) youth camp CLOSED IN 1923. Mr. Robert Gee, then Club 13 President, and his wife felt so strongly that the camp experience should be available, they purchased 40 acres by Lake Jacomo on Colburn Road in Lee's Summit. The land was placed in trust by the Gees in 1928 and Club 13 was granted exclusive use of it in perpetuity for activities in service to youth.
